MRS. FRANCIS ALEXANDER ELLIOTT, JR.

the former Miss Abby Helene Paulette

Vows Exchanged

The marriage of Miss Abby Helene Paulette, daughter of Mrs. Nellie Idelle Paulette and the late Mr. Phillip Ashby Paulette to Francis Alexander Elliott, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Alexander Elliott, Sr., all of Appomattox, took place Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock in Evergreen Baptist Church.

The church was decorated with cathedral candles, arrangements of pink carnations white gladioli and banked with palms.

The Rev. Vergil Hudson, pastor of the church, officiated at the double ring ceremony. A program of nuptial music was provided by Miss Nancy Mathews and Mrs. Millard Stimpson, soloist.

Given in marriage by her uncle, William Ronald Paulette, the bride wore a gown of starch chiffon, the bodice was finished with a sabrina neckline and bishop sleeves, the A-line skirt ended in a chapel train. Motifs of Venice lace were a liqued on the bodice and cu s of the sleeves. Her fingertip veil of imported illusion was attached to a crown of seed pearls and lace. She carried a Colonial bouquet of white pom-poms, pink rose buds, baby breath centered with a white Bridal Orchid and showered with pink rose buds.

Mrs. Joette Blackwell of Richmond was honor attendant for her sister. She wore a sleeveless gown of pink peau de sole appliqued in white lace and carried a nosegay of pink carnations and baby breath.

Mr. Elliott was his son's best man and ushers were Mr. Samuel Martin, Appomattox and Mr. Richard Chaffin of Lynchburg.

The mother of the bride wore a pink brocade dress with matching accessories and a pink cymbidium orchid.

The groom's mother wore a dress and matching coat of turquoise silk shantung with matching accessories and a pink cymbidium orchid.

Following the ceremony, the bride's mother was hostess for a reception in the church social hall.

The bride's going away dress was of white crepe with a navy blue vest trimmed in white lace. She wore navy blue accessories and the white bridal orchid lifted from her bouquet.

The bride will be a June graduate of Appomattox High School.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Liberty High School, Bedford, and attended Danville Technical Institute.

The couple will leave for Offenburg, Germany where they will reside for eighteen months while the bridegroom is employed with the Meridith-Burda Corp.

Education For Older Folks, Too

Fifth and sixth graders are taking their education home with them – at least an attempt to educate their elders, as seen in the pamphlet, "The Sponsor's Self-Test" and announcement of a series of programs "Why You Smoke - A Self-Test" seen on education-al TV channels in this area March 2 - 6 at 10 p.m. Each of Mrs. Ligon's fifth graders (above) carried home the materials as did the others in hope that parents would be watching TV this week. The programs co-spo by National Educational Television operation with the American Cancer Society. Richmond WCVE-Roanoke WBRA-TV are among those the program. Mrs. Margaret Shields school nurse, made arrangements anti-smoking program through the A tox Unit, American Cancer Society.

Missionary Must Decline To Speak On Work

Miss Hazel Moon, missionary to Nigeria, says that she regrets she cannot accept the many invitations she has received to speak about her work. She is living at her home in Appomattox County.

She was granted her year's furlough a month early due to the serious illness of her father.

Notification of this is through the minutes of an executive committee meeting of the Nigerian Missionary meeting during which the following action was taken:

Miss Moon's Furlough:

Motion carried that we recommend to the Foreign Mission Board that Miss Hazel Moon be allowed to go on a twelve month furlough one month early due to the serious illness of her father.

Celebrates 88th Birthday

by Mrs. Rachel F. Lawson

Relatives and friends who visited Mrs. Natalie Robertson during the week end to celebrate her 88th birthday on Feb. 26 were Mrs. Walter Robertson and son, Walter Jr., of Washington, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Robertson of Richmond, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hamilton of Lynchburg, Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Carnefix, and many other local friends.

Mrs Robertson was deserved-ly the recipient of over 50 birthday greeting cards and many gifts which included a sizeable amount of money.

This popular lady is amazing in that she walks every day to visit friends and the sick. She does her marketing and keeps house alone on Lee St. In her spare time, she continues to make the "old time" bonnets for the Country Store at the Appomattox Court House National Historical Park. She has not kept an accurate count of the number sold since 1965 but estimated to be nearly a thousand mark.

If a popularity vote were taken, I feel sure Mrs. Robertson would win "Mrs. Appomattox" by any opposition!!

Being a close neighbor and lady possibly I am a little prejudiced.

Beta Club

The Beta Club met on Feb. 26, in the high school auditorium. The president, Paul Harvey, called the meeting to order. Devotions were given by Patricia Hudson. Wanda Hillsman read the minutes and called the roll. The treasurer's report was given by Milton Bruce.

In the order of old business, it was decided to hold off on selling the penants. As for new business, Betsy Jones reported on the talent entry for the Beta Club Convention. The name of the entry is "The Sound of the Times". Mrs. DePew also talked about the Beta Club Convention which will be held on March 13. It was also decided that the joining of new club members would have to be delayed.

For the program, there was a panel discussion on "The Problems We Face In Our School and Community." The panel consisted of Mr. James Hall, Kay Thomas, and David Schrock. After the program, the meeting was adjourned.
